

A solo show written & performed by Katie Rubin "Why I Died. A Comedy."

Friday, July 26th at 8pm. One show only.

Follow this link for tickets or call 707-266-6305.

When the pressure of being human becomes too much, we should never forget that spiritual suicide is always an option. If it's true that our attachment to worldly concerns and ambitions is the cause of our suffering, then dissolving those ambitions into the Light of All That Is should bring complete and perfect peace to our hearts, right? Maybe...

"Why I Died" explores the questions and challenges raised by the complex and often soul-sucking aspects of being a person among other people, while also being a formless spiritual essence attempting to evolve in 3 dimensional reality.

"Why I Died" tells the story of Katie Rubin's attempt to navigate a deep spiritual awakening in the face of a tight writing deadline. Along the way, she deals with and plays the roles of her hilariously pushy producer, a codependent mugger, a loose and vapid pop star, an infomercial saleswoman, a New Age Gueess, A Sufi "Perfected Master," a clueless boyfriend and a bevy of false prophets. Through the voices of 10 comedic characters, Rubin chronicles her attempt to create and evolve simultaneously. Will her spiritual and creative efforts merge? Or will she have to give up one for the other?

THE LATEST FROM MULTI-TALENTED RUBIN AS SHE EXPLORES HER SPIRITUAL AWAKENING THROUGH THE VOICES OF 10 COMEDIC CHARACTERS.

DON'T WORRY. YOU CAN HANDLE THE TRUTH!

Follow this link for highlights from the show.